

IMAGINING THE POSSIBILITIES

A Montana Arts Education Leadership Summit

hosted by MAC and OPI

September 23-24, 2016

Helena, MT

Please join the Montana Arts Council and the Montana Office of Public Instruction as we shine a spotlight on the new Montana Arts Standards. Embracing integrated arts learning as a critical component of a well-rounded education, we will also celebrate American Indian Heritage Day. Enjoy special performances and workshops by Montana artists and educators, including a Friday evening reception featuring Philip Aaberg and Jack Gladstone. Events are free. See full schedule on reverse.

For information and to register: <http://tinyurl.com/MTArtsSummit>

Interested in presenting an innovative idea in Arts Education?
Send a proposal for an ArtsEdTalk!
Apply here: <http://tinyurl.com/MTArtsSummitArtsTalk>

Imagining the Possibilities: A Montana Arts Education Leadership Summit

September 23, 2016

Myrna Loy
Helena, MT

1-4 pm Pre-Conference Workshop for administrators & teachers with Jenny Bevill:
"Making the Case for Creativity: The Benefits of Thinking Like an Artist."

6-9 pm Opening Reception: Speakers and performances featuring Montana Artists
Phillip Aaberg and Jack Gladstone

September 24, 2016

Helena College
Helena, MT

8:30 am – 4:30 pm

Day-long program featuring presentations
by Montana Teacher Leaders in the Arts, student performances, and ArtsEdTalks by teaching artists across Montana.

